ANNOUNCEMENT: CLOSED PERIOD

In terms of Section 4.10 of the MERJ Listing Requirements, the Company would like to inform all affected persons that it will be in a closed period for the trading of its shares from the close of market on August 27, 2021 until such time as the interim results for the period ended June 30, 2021 are published. The Company anticipates that the results will be released by no later than September 30, 2021.

During this period, all affected persons are prohibited from dealing in the Company's shares, as it could be implied that they may be aware of unpublished price-sensitive information. Unpublished price-sensitive information is information affecting a company which if released is likely to materially affect the company's share price.

For the ease of reference, the definition of "affected persons" is included below: "affected person" means in relation to Curzio Research:

- 1) any officer or other person employed by the Company in a managerial or executive capacity; or
- 2) any officer or person employed in the finance department of the Company and the finance department of Marks Paneth LLP; or
- 3) the Company's board of directors; or
- 4) any officer or other person employed by the Company's Sponsor Advisor, external auditors or external Company Secretary who works on the Company's account;
- 5) any of the following in relation to any of the persons prescribed in 1) through 4) –
 - a) an associated person; and
 - b) that person's spouse; and
 - c) that person's child, parent, step-child, or step-parent and any spouse of such person; and
 - d) any person who has entered into an agreement with that person relating to a transaction in the securities of the MERJ EXCHANGE issuer; and
 - e) a trust, company, holding company, subsidiary, group of companies or any other legal vehicle in which that person has any interest (other than a discretionary interest in the case of a trust beneficiary), shares, control or influence;
